

As Seen In seventeen

The Urban Institute for Contemporary Arts (UICA) recently announced that KCAD alum Katie Zychowski ('11, Photography) has been named the organization's new Marketing and Communications Coordinator. In this new UICA role, Zychowski will be responsible for promoting UICA's programs, exhibiting artists, and events to the region, as well as nationally and internationally.

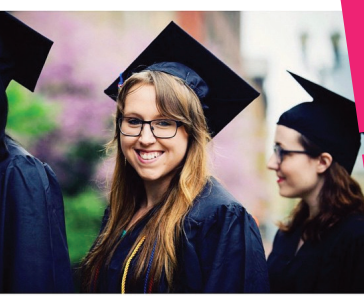

"Points of View - 11 AM: Money Matters' Review" - By MFA Student AJ Cooke #KCAD #ArtPrize

United by Clay: #KCAD Clay Collective Builds Community Through Ceramics

Fashion Illustrations by student Athena Anger

CREATIVITY IS TRENDING #kcad

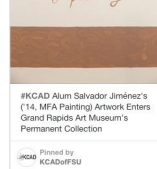

photography by student Andrea Horn

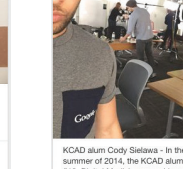

Destination Wedding Photographers Share Advice on Careers and Life

Finalist Fashion Event Fruits Collaboration Between KCAD Interior Design Students and Alumni

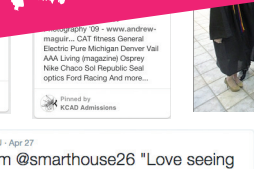

#KCAD Alum Salvador Jimenez's ('14, MFA Painting) Artwork Enters Grand Rapids Art Museum's Permanent Collection

KCAD alum Cody Sietawa - In the summer of 2014, the KCAD alum ('12, Digital Media) was working in Grand Rapids-based web and mobile design firm Mighty in the Midwest when he found himself in a career crossroads. One path led to a sure thing: a job offer from full-service digital advertising agency VML (formerly Biggby/Denmore) to work as an Art Director in Manhattan. The other led to a chance to interview with one of the most forward-thinking and dynamic companies in the world.

Repost from @smarthouse26 "Love seeing an artsy mural on the side of the building..Grand Rapids" #kcad KCAD alum Patrick Adams from the TV show 'Suits' recently featured artwork on his Instagram account from former KCAD student Pat Perry! Report from @inafidams "Thank you to @theperiperry for the goodness. Let the framing begin."

A series of custom tables, designed by DeGroot. www.kcad.edu

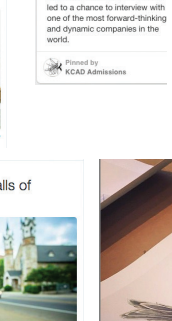

Robert Coombs - 2013 Excellence Award Winner - BFA Photography #KCAD #Photography

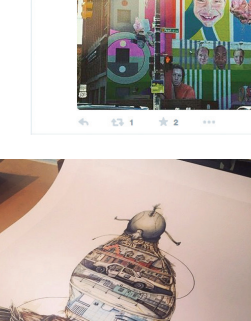

KCAD students and staff working at Kids Art Zone for @FestivalGR! #FestivalGR #kcad #grandrapids #grgram

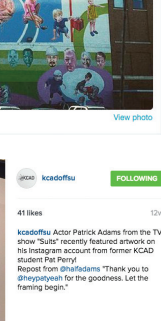

KCAD Creativity is escaping out the walls of #KCAD.

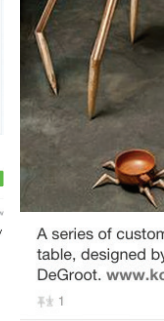

KCAD alum Elizabeth Gaines Zoutendyk ('07, Metals and Jewelry Design) Sparkles in Teaching Position at the Geological Institute of America

Fashion Illustrations by student Athena Anger

KCAD alum Elizabeth Gaines Zoutendyk ('07, Metals and Jewelry Design) Sparkles in Teaching Position at the Geological Institute of America

KCAD alum Elizabeth Gaines Zoutendyk ('07, Metals and Jewelry Design) Sparkles in Teaching Position at the Geological Institute of America

Now more than ever, your creative talent is in demand. At Kendall College of Art and Design, each of our 17 specialized undergraduate programs – from Interior Design to Photography to Fashion Studies – is designed to help you graduate with the technical ability, creative flexibility, and real-world experience tomorrow's careers require, all while helping you discover that success starts with doing what you love. Offering in-state tuition to all U.S. applicants. Spark your future at kcad.edu

Kendall College of Art and Design of Ferris State University

