

Because you never know the when.

9:13 a.m.

A stroke can be brewing at any time—even over morning coffee.

If it does, you can count on Memorial to be there, delivering lifesaving care at a moment's notice.

As a multi-hospital system, Memorial connects every community we serve to outstanding stroke specialists and treatments. We work together to ensure you have the fastest care and best outcomes. So no matter where you live, Memorial is the where for stroke care.

The where for stroke care.
