

JOBST
VASCULAR INSTITUTE

WELL CONNECTED.

LIGHTHEADED?

It could be a sign of vascular disease, a complication of diabetes.

We won't sugarcoat it. Diabetes increases your risk for vascular disease. And lightheadedness or dizziness caused by clogged arteries is a possible precursor to a stroke. Listen to your body, then talk to a Jobst Vascular Institute specialist.

 Take our assessment at promedica.org/CAD

 800-39-JOBST

© 2019 ProMedica