

I have two children, a small business that I manage with my sister, and chemo sessions that I must attend every other week. My life can be hectic, but I am grateful. After receiving a successful kidney transplant from my amazing team at Rhode Island Hospital, you won't ever hear me complaining.

Lifespan.org/Monique

Delivering health with care.®